Community Transport

Do you need transport to help do your shopping, or get to a medical appointment or social outing? There is every chance you are eligible for Intereach Community Transport.

We help older people, people living with disability, including children and their carers, people who are transport disadvantaged and Department of Veterans' Affairs support recipients to stay independent and connected to the local community.

For eligibility requirements, please visit our website:
www.intereach.com.au or call the Community Transport team on 5890 5224 or 1300 488 226.

So, how does it work?

Phone Intereach Community Transport on 5890 5224 or 1300 488 226, or drop in for a chat.

We develop an idea of your needs and book transport to suit you. After your first trip, just phone or drop into your nearest office during opening hours to book. Bookings in advance are welcome.

What's available?

- Group bookings (bus options)
- Wheelchair accessible vehicles
- Door-to-door service
- Out of town trips

What does it cost?

Cost will vary depending on the destination and distance you travel. You will receive a list of suggested contributions at your first meeting with staff, or upon request.

Where is it available?

Intereach Community Transport is available in the Edward River and Griffith local government areas.
